

“Kings of Q” BBQ Cook-off and Festival

May 18 & 19, 2018 in Downtown Ayden, North Carolina
North Carolina State Barbecue Championship and KCBS Sanctioned Contest

Dear “Kings of Q” Friend,

On the behalf of the Town of Ayden, it’s citizens, and the 2018 “Kings of Q” BBQ Cook-off and Festival Committee, please allow me to thank you for all the good things that you have done for eastern North Carolina.

The purpose of this letter is to ask for your help in sponsoring the annual “Kings of Q” BBQ Cook-off & Festival on May 18 and 19, 2018, in Downtown Ayden. The “Kings of Q” BBQ Cook-off has been declared a North Carolina State Barbecue Championship by the governor and is sanctioned by the Kansas City Barbeque Society (KCBS), the world's largest organization of barbeque and grilling enthusiasts with over 20,000 members worldwide. Competitors and KCBS judges from across the nation will come to Ayden to compete and judge in the categories of chicken, pork ribs, pork shoulder, and beef brisket, for $10,000 in cash and prizes awarded Saturday afternoon. The festival is a family friendly event with nightly entertainment on the main stage, amusement rides and games, food vendors, commercial booths, and arts and crafts. The Cook-off and Festival will increase tourism for not only Ayden, but the surrounding communities and will have a positive economic impact with the potential of drawing more than 8,000 visitors to the area.

The BBQ Cook-off is named in honor of the two local “Kings of Q”, Latham “Bum” Dennis and the late Pete Jones. Both families run successful BBQ restaurants (Bum’s Restaurant and Skylight Inn) in Ayden and share family history as being descendants of Skilton Dennis. The Dennis family history stakes claim to the nation’s first commercial barbecue establishment. In 1830, Skilton Dennis is said to have started selling pit-cooked hog meat and cornbread out of a wagon in a community named Otter Town, the present town of Ayden. The Dennis clan is said to pass “that ‘gift’ with barbecue” from generation to generation.

A commitment to be a sponsor of this event is due by March 1, 2018 to guarantee inclusion in all advertising opportunities. We offer several levels of sponsorship shown on the reverse side, and for businesses/corporations needing tax advantages and interested in multi-year sponsorships please contact Kim Bell, Sponsorship Coordinator at kbellrhia@yahoo.com or 252-341-6130, emails preferred. We welcome your call, any questions about the event or the many sponsorship possibilities we offer. The event cannot be a success without the support from the businesses in the area. The committee and I look forward to the opportunity to work with you in making this event a success.

On the reverse side are some sponsorship levels for your review.

Best Regards,

Stephen Smith
